With deep respect and appreciation,

we, the Senior Class of 1967, dedicate this yearbook to Miss Carol Ann Harding.

Four years ago many of us in our Freshman English Class were greeted by an attractive young blonde teacher. Since then, Miss Harding has been the constant companion and helper of the Class of '67.

Those of us who are acquainted with Miss Harding know her to be a very fine teacher and person. We have always found her eager to talk to us about any problem. Her integrity, wisdom, sincerity, and interest have helped to promote students intellectually and morally.

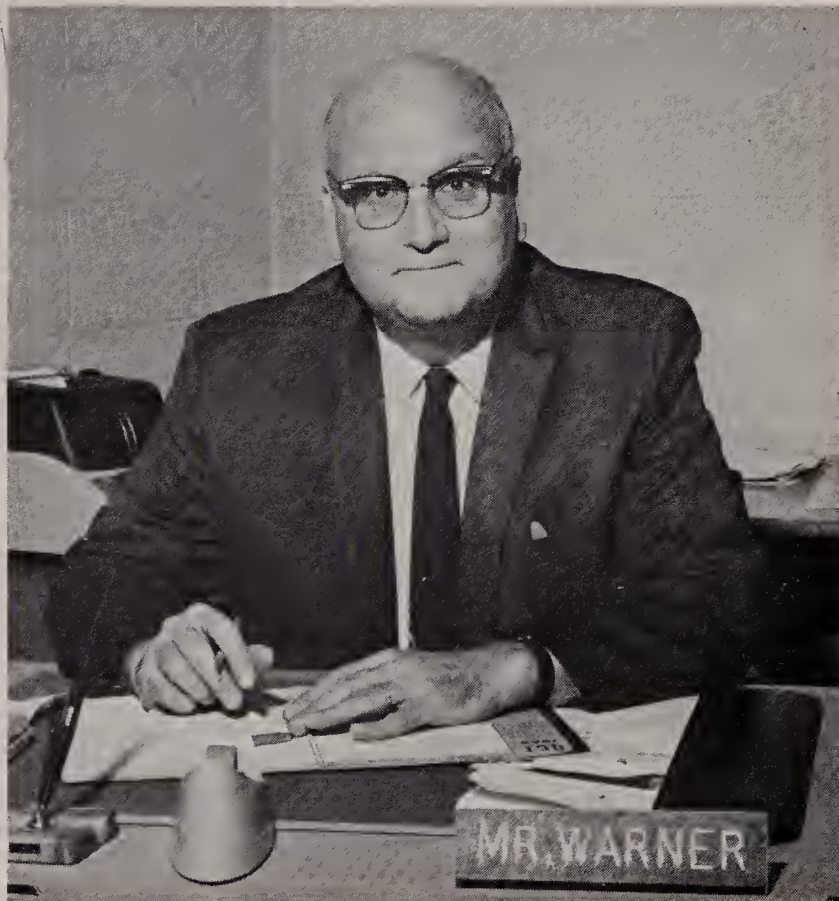

Miss Harding has been with our class through Freshman jitters right up to Senior excitement. She has aided us in different social events and it is her help that has made these events successful. The Dramatics Club also excelled under her capable leadership. We are certain that future classes will receive from her the same kindness, guidance, knowledge and understanding.

For these contributions and many more, the Senior Class wishes to express their sentiments and those of the entire school for Miss Harding's dedication to us.
